Pursuant to section 238(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act), 8 USC 1228(b) the Immigration and Naturalization Service (Service) has determined that you are amenable to expedited administrative removal proceedings. The determination is based on the following allegations:

- You are not a citizen or national of the United States; 1.
- You are a native of Mexico and a citizen of Mexico; 2.
- You entered the United States at or near San Ysidro, California on or about August 1993; 3.
- At that time, you were not inspected by an Immigration Officer; 4.
- You are not lawfully admitted for permanent residence; 5.
- You were convicted on March 04, 2003 in the Circuit Court of Cullman County, Cullman, Alabama for the offense of trafficking 6. methamphetamine in violation of Section 13A-012-231(11) of the Alabama Criminal Code;
- You were sentenced to 18 months confinement in the Alabama penal system and 3 years probation. 7.

Charge:

You are deportable under section 237(a)(2)(A)(iii) of the Act, 8 USC 1227(a)(2)(A)(iii), as amended, because you have been convicted of an aggravated felony as defined in section 101(a)(43)(B) of the Act, 8 USC 1101(a)(43)(B); to wit: Trafficking methamphetamine for which a specific term of imprisonment is not required.

Based upon section 238(b) of the Act, the Service is serving upon you this NOTICE OF INTENT TO ISSUE A FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE REMOVAL ORDER ("Notice of Intent") without a hearing before an Immigration Judge;

Your Rights and Responsibilities

You may choose to be represented (at no expense to the United States government) by counsel, authorized to practice in this proceeding. If you wish legal advice and cannot afford it, contact legal counsel from the list of available free legal services provided to you.

You must respond to the above charges in writing to the Service address provided below within 10 calendar days of service of this notice (or 13 calendar days if service is by mail). The Service must RECEIVE your response within that time period.

In your response you may: request, for good cause, an extension of time; rebut the charges stated above (with supporting evidence); request an opportunity to review the government's evidence; admit deportability; designate the country to which you choose to be removed in the event that a final order of removal is issued (which designation the Service will honor only to the extent permitted under section 241 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1231); and/or if you fear persecution in any specific country or countries, you may request withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the Act or withholding/deferral of removal under the Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman, or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (Convention against Torture). A grant of withholding or deferral of removal would prohibit your return to a country or countries where you would be persecuted or tortured, but would not prevent your removal to a safe

You may seek judicial review of any final administrative order by filing a petition for review within 30 calendar days after the date such final administrative order is issufed, or you may waive such appeal by stating, in writing, your desire not to appeal.
